

READ

Genesis 2:15, 1:26–28; 3:17-19
Colossians 3:23–24

CONSIDER

A fairy tale may end with "They lived happily ever after," signifying a happy, trouble-free future. After waking up from the romanticism, it is quite the opposite in reality. Life is filled with challenges, to say the least. Moreover, can one "work happily ever after"? The real world again will tell us unlikely. But can Jesus do something about it? The answer is absolutely affirmative. Work can be fun!

Pastor Joseph Mok

PRAY

Dear God our Father, thank You for the gift of work. Help me to labour with fun and joy, not losing direction and grumbling. Redeem my toil, use my skills for your kingdom, and let my work reflect your beauty and goodness. When I grow weary, strengthen me and remind me of your divine calling. Amen.

DIVING DEEPER

Extract the wisdom from the Bible. Learn the know-how. This is a promise by our Lord Jesus. "Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you". (Matthew 7:7 NIV)

1. How was fun intended for work by God at creation?
2. Why is our work experience far from God's original intent?
3. How can we restore fun at work? How shall we work?