

READ

Habakkuk 3

CONSIDER

When Habakkuk comes before God with his complaint, he is shocked by the answer that God will use the ruthless and impetuous Babylonians to do his will.

As we try to make sense of the evil and suffering in our lives and throughout the world, Habakkuk shows us that there is no easy answer to these questions. However, Habakkuk reminds us of all of the things God has done in the past and invites God to do them again (ch2 v3).

As we wrap up our church wide series entitled Resilient Faith, I hope we will be strengthened by God and one another to continue to press on, knowing God is the one who “enables (us) to tread on the heights”, faithfully pressing on in what He has called us to.

Pastor Tim Sreedharan

PRAY

Read Habakkuk 3:16-19.

Lord, even when we do not understand your ways and life seems hopeless, we will rejoice because you enable us to press on. Amen.

DIVING DEEPER

Read 3:1-2. How does Habakkuk's prayer to remember what God has done & invite Him to do it again help us understand ch1-2?

Read 3:3-7. What does this Psalm teach us about the God of history?

Read 3:8-15. In this section, we see that God is all-powerful and will justly judge the nations. How does this help answer Habakkuk's complaints in ch1-2?

Read 3:16-19. This is a powerful prayer of surrender. What are the different components? How does this prayer help us when we experience difficulties?

How does praying this prayer corporately help us to stand firm in faith?